Events Alexandrina February

Just Add Water is the year long Regional Centre for Culture program, in the picturesque Goolwa region. It's an opportunity to see how the arts can add that something extra to our community, bringing people together in the spirit of cooperation.

A flow of arts experiences into the region from South Australia's best and brightest, converging with local inventiveness, creates an energy that will bubble over sending its tributaries throughout the community.

A full program of events, exhibitions and workshops will be on offer throughout 2012.

Check the website and sign up for regular updates at www.artsalexandrina.org.au or call in to Goolwa Visitor Information Centre for a program.
